

Call for Entry – Change is in the Air

A Freethinker's Corner is hosting a juried group exhibition titled "Change is in the Air" at The Gallery @ A Freethinker's Corner in Dover, NH.

November is a time for change: the natural world's appearance, days getting shorter with the change of the clocks, the approaching change in seasons, and a national election which may change the course of the country, the pandemic, and the human psyche. Whether your work is a statement of the natural world, or your creativity has been sparked by this time in our history, how does your art reflect the change that is in the air? All-media works will be considered including 2 dimensional and three dimensional and beyond.
